Chris Barnes

After 11 years as the founding member of Freedom Calls, Chris has now moved into a new season of music that combines both well-known corporate worship songs with original song writing and storytelling. Chris believes that worship is not just a few moments on stage but a lifestyle, and he strives to lead with authenticity and a heart of service. Join him on this exciting journey as he seeks to foster a vibrant worship culture that resonates with all who long to experience the love and grace of God. This is Chris' fourth time at Celebration leading our hearts to Christ in worship!
